

www.bacchusimportersltd.com

Molly Daker

“Violinist” Verdelho

The Violinist is a gorgeously full-bodied Verdelho that was fermented and aged in both new and old French and American wood, then bottle early. It wa a powerful white boasting notes of honeyed melons and other tropical fruits, beeswax, and crisp citrus. There is good underlying acidity, an explosively rid mid-palate, and a fresh, lively, elegant, creamy texture as well as finish.

www.bacchusimportersltd.com

Molly Daker

“Violinist” Verdelho

The Violinist is a gorgeously full-bodied Verdelho that was fermented and aged in both new and old French and American wood, then bottle early. It wa a powerful white boasting notes of honeyed melons and other tropical fruits, beeswax, and crisp citrus. There is good underlying acidity, an explosively rid mid-palate, and a fresh, lively, elegant, creamy texture as well as finish.

www.bacchusimportersltd.com

Molly Daker

“Violinist” Verdelho

The Violinist is a gorgeously full-bodied Verdelho that was fermented and aged in both new and old French and American wood, then bottle early. It wa a powerful white boasting notes of honeyed melons and other tropical fruits, beeswax, and crisp citrus. There is good underlying acidity, an explosively rid mid-palate, and a fresh, lively, elegant, creamy texture as well as finish.

www.bacchusimportersltd.com

Molly Daker

“Violinist” Verdelho

The Violinist is a gorgeously full-bodied Verdelho that was fermented and aged in both new and old French and American wood, then bottle early. It wa a powerful white boasting notes of honeyed melons and other tropical fruits, beeswax, and crisp citrus. There is good underlying acidity, an explosively rid mid-palate, and a fresh, lively, elegant, creamy texture as well as finish.

